Old Business:

- BJCP Exam –we need a location. Free, well-lit, no “smells” i.e. cooking, brewing, smoking, etc. Dave checked Felton Community Hall, too expensive. Mark checked Capitola Center, also expensive and they prohibit alcohol. The fairgrounds has offered the Harvest Building at no charge, and Mark has offered the Santa Cruz Aleworks facility. It is now up to Beth Z to decide how to proceed.

- Farmer Mike –a gentleman with 42 acres in Happy Valley is interested in growing hops. Mia referred him to Amelia and he was happy.
- Big Brew –Mia to contact Emily once again to confirm the parking lot will still work. Alternate sites could be Aleworks or Community Printers. Brad will make an A-Frame sign to help guide people in. So far confirmed brewers are: Larry, Steve R, Brad, Dick and Dave

New Business:

- Book Cafe Event, Wednesday April 15th. Confirmed to bring beer are Mark, Dave, Larry, Brad, Steve R and Dick. Details of talk to be confirmed
- Continental Picnic w/the Fungus Federation - we are interested, but it must be after the April 11th test date. Waiting for some dates to come back from Phil C
- Flea Market - possibly part of Big Brew. There is still interest in a large swap meet with other clubs, we will start pursuing this at March meeting.
